CLASS A MULTI-USER OFFICE/FLEX PROPERTY
CORPORATE HQ WITH WAREHOUSE
CYPRESS, CALIFORNIA

REINVENTED OFFICE SPACE

6550 Katella is part of one of the most distinctive single-user or multi-user office/flex HQ properties in Cypress, California. The campus-like setting and flexible building design make this property ideal for a corporate headquarters.

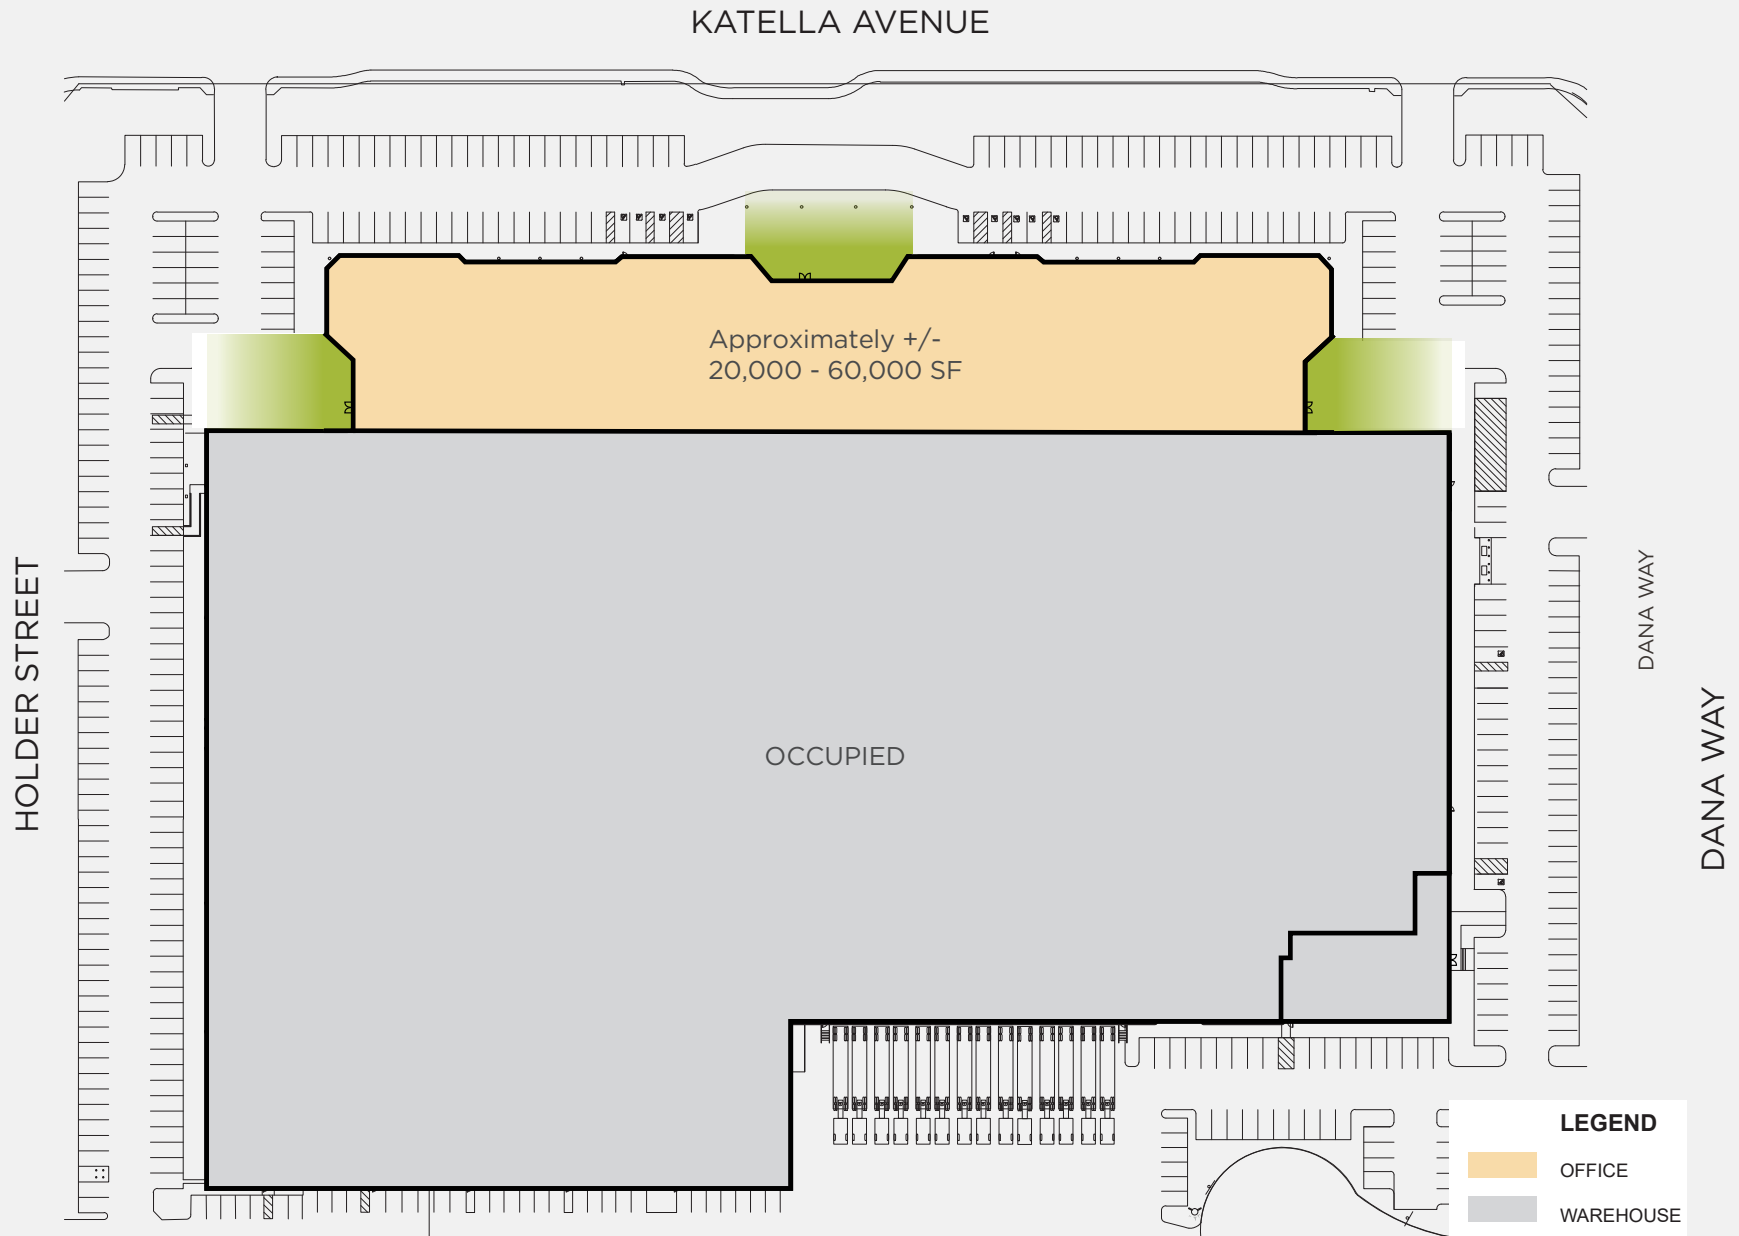

This Class A Project is strategically situated in the heart of the Cypress submarket in the Mid-Counties area of Southern California. The property will undergo a significant renovation including a complete redesign of the lobby and office areas, new restrooms, and new landscaping. In addition, the property's large single floor plate provide for efficient office layouts and the attractive window line with an abundance of natural light.
